Nomratha Fernandes, Navhind Times India

the artist - carries a musical cocktail in her backpack: gospel, soul, blues, jazz, folk, rock, crossover. In Denmark and Germany she has been cooperating with musicians of diverse nationalities & musical backgrounds; crossing over from folk to blues to classic to... the music - upon enlightenment experiences in 1988, she decided to follow a spiritual calling to raising her voice in service of humanity - by means of song, music, and other healing arts. Her approach is holistic & unique an invitation to awareness

Following the way of her heart, she is channeling and writing songs with universal message; both feet on the ground. She is authentic - not cut to measure - neither as a human being nor as an artist the vocals - free from dogma, her voice is expressing all emotional subtleties. Rhythmic music, lyrics, and song harmonize body, mind, spirit, and emotions

Jane Maluka - has been a close observer of the ways people interact; ever since early childhood. Compassion, peace and human rights have been lifelong heart matters, naturally mirrored in her songwriting.

it was an angel singing for us tonight
- erik zeidler denmark

Experience from personal history; indignation against today's growing polarization between rich and poor, locally and globally - intolerance, inhuman conditions, and injustice, altogether deliver the fuel for her artistic work making a difference the project & CD Journey of Discovery - is a musical journey - songs about the blues, hope, longing, joy, love, peace, freedom - claiming a life of dignity for all people, all over the world

it's food for thought - and space for joy

Ever since early days of human history, music and song have been used for communication. Music is a language, universally transcending borders and uniting people, regardless of gender, age, skin color, and nationality the concerts - with a colorful cocktail of a capella singing, ballads, folk, rock, blues, soul, jazz, Jane Maluka is inviting to join her musical journey of discovery

It's transcending borders - building bridges - the melting pot of musical styles and human nuances it's warmth - it's presence - it's Matters of The Heart it's Jane Maluka's World Soul
